Nathan Birch

Birch's acrylic landscapes could be mistaken for photographs. His diptychs depict natural British Columbian settings—Myra Falls, Strathcona Provincial Park, Chesterman Beach (above)—with startlingly convincing realism. The beauty is in the details: shadows over snow-covered fields, billowing clouds atop placid lakes and the white-crested waves of rushing waters. Prices available upon request. April 2 to 23. Mira Godard Gallery, 22 Hazelton Ave., 416-964-8197.
